PRICING ANTITRUST LITIGATION

MDL NO. 2724
16-MD-2724

THIS DOCUMENT RELATES TO:

HON. CYNTHIA M. RUFÉ

The State of Connecticut, et al. v. Sandoz, Inc. et al.

Civil Action No.
2:20-cv-03539-CMR

NOTICE OF ERRATA

Plaintiff State of Arizona has determined that two exhibits filed with the Plaintiff States' Memorandum in Opposition to Defendants' Joint Motion to Dismiss the State Attorneys General's Amended Third Complaint [Doc. 148] either contain incorrect Arizona-specific legal authorities or omit the relevant Arizona legal authority. The State of Arizona submits this Notice of Errata to modify those exhibits with the applicable legal authorities. The following Exhibits are modified as follows:

On Exhibit 1 [Doc. 148-1], the following row is deleted:

State	State Law Claim Challenged by Defendants	Authority for the Application of the Nullum Tempus Doctrine
Arizona	Arizona Consumer Fraud Act	Ariz. Revised Statutes Section 44-1522; AZ's state law consumer claims are not subject to any statute of limitations but AZ's state law antitrust claims are subject to a 4-year statute of limitations.

and replaced with:

State	State Law Claim Challenged by Defendants	Authority for the Application of the Nullum Tempus Doctrine
Arizona	Arizona State Uniform Antitrust Act	Trimble v. Am. Sav. Life Ins. Co. , 733 P.2d 1131, 1137-39 (Ariz. App. 1986) (reaffirming longstanding application of nullum tempus doctrine to all claims except where the Legislature expressly declares otherwise); Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 44-1410 (only applying 4-year limitations period to claims for civil penalties and monetary damages and not mentioning claims for injunctive or equitable relief).

On Exhibit 4 [Doc. 148-4], the following row is added:

State	State Antitrust Law Claim Challenged by Defendants	Authority that the State Antitrust Law Generally Follows Federal Antitrust Law
Arizona	Arizona State Uniform Antitrust Act	Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 44-1412

Dated: February 24, 2022

Respectfully Submitted,
 PLAINTIFF STATE OF ARIZONA
